Generation No. 1

1. JOHN¹ MCCLURE was born Abt. 1804 in North Carolina (Source: 1870 Census, Decatur Co. TN.), and died Bet. 1870 - 1880 in Decatur Co. TN. He married (1) VINNY ?. She was born Abt. 1805 in Tennessee, and died Bet. 1850 - 1860 in McNairy Co. TN. He married (2) MALINDA ADKISSON Bet. 1870 - 1880, daughter of JOSEPH ADKISSON and ELLENDER BRASHEARS. She was born Abt. 1817 in Tennessee, and died Aft. 1880 in Decatur Co. TN.

Notes for MALINDA ADKISSON:

In the 1870 census, Elender Adkison is living in the Malinda Orr household. Based on this I am determining that Malinda Orr's mother is Elender Adkison.

In the 1880 census, Malinda is listed as Malinda McClure. Apparently, she remarried a McClure between 1870 and 1880 and her husband died before the 1880 census. I am tentatively connecting John McClure as her second husband based on age and proximity in Decatur Co. TN census records. I need to research this marriage further to confirm.

In the 1880 census, Elender Adkisson is also in the household and listed as Mother and US Pensioner.

It was selected in 1821 to serve as county seat for Perry County. Charles Miles, John Rasser, James Dickson, Charles Graham, W. S. Britt, and William Patterson were appointed to locate the county seat. Before being incorporated in 1825, it was known as Midtown Community. One of the first merchants was Samuel McClure. James M. and Curry Pettigrew of Armagh, Ireland came to Perryville in 1825 and ran a mercantile business.

He was born June 18, 1867 in Tennessee, and died May 01, 1963 (Source: Headstone, Pleasant Hill Cemetery, "Married Dec. 30, 1888.").

Notes for EUNICE ADELINE MCCLURE:

Porch furniture mad of willow with the bark on it decorated the long front porch of the front of the house.

Huge high head boards for the beds was in the bedrooms, with a hat tree in the hallway of the house with a red fox stole with it's head and fee on it. It was always draped on the hall tree. Mama Lancaster had the fox stole made for her daughter Julia.

There was a seat in the hall made from a bed used for seating when the large family had a reunion. There was a pie safe in the kitchen. Most of the time when you opened the tin doors, the aroma of a homemade pie would linger long after the doors was closed.

Papa Lancaster chewed tobacco, but only one kind. It was twisted tobacco shaped like the figure 8.

Aunt Julia gave Mama Lancaster a Persian cat one time named Mary. Jim Frank McBride informed me that Persian cats were still at the old home place at this time.

Sweet peas, holly hocks, roses, and big shade trees grace the yard with their beauty.

There was a branch at the barn yard with the clearest water I ever saw and cold as ice probably at one time it served as a refrigerator.

Papa and Mama Lancaster probably never failed to vote. It was a privilege indeed for them to have that opportunity to exercise their right.

One was a strong Republican, the other a strong Democrat. So whether you are a Democrat or a Republican you had strong ties dating back to Mama and Papa Lancaster.

Notes for ROBERT LEE LANCASTER:

Porch furniture mad of willow with the bark on it decorated the long front porch of the front of the house.

Huge high head boards for the beds was in the bedrooms, with a hat tree in the hallway of the house with a red fox stole with it's head and fee on it. It was always draped on the hall tree. Mama Lancaster had the fox stole made for her daughter Julia.

There was a seat in the hall made from a bed used for seating when the large family had a reunion. There was a pie safe in the kitchen. Most of the time when you opened the tin doors, the aroma of a homemade pie would linger long after the doors was closed.

Papa Lancaster chewed tobacco, but only one kind. It was twisted tobacco shaped like the figure 8.

Aunt Julia gave Mama Lancaster a Persian cat one time named Mary. Jim Frank McBride informed me that Persian cats were still at the old home place at this time.

Sweet peas, holly hocks, roses, and big shade trees grace the yard with their beauty.

There was a branch at the barn yard with the clearest water I ever saw and cold as ice probably at one time it served as a refrigerator.

Papa and Mama Lancaster probably never failed to vote. It was a privilege indeed for them to have that opportunity to exercise their right.

One was a strong Republican, the other a strong Democrat. So whether you are a Democrat or a Republican you had strong ties dating back to Mama and Papa Lancaster.

Julia remembers

Remembering Papa and Mama Lancaster

Robert Lee Lancaster and Adeline McClure were married on December 30, 1888, in the presence of T. A. Lancaster and Arbie Brawley by J. L. Jones, at D. J. McClure's. Seven children were born to this union: Curry Herbert, Beulah May, Benjamin Dempsey, and Grady Leonard Lancaster at Dunbar in Decatur County; Euda Jeler and Jessie Thelma Lancaster at Sardis in Henderson County; and Julia Edna Graper Lancaster at Bath Springs in Decatur County, Tennessee.

Someone has said there is no such thing as "The Perfect Home". However, my parents tried to set a standard of values centered in love. They were members of the Church of Christ and placed Christ at the center of their lives. They experienced great tragedies and much sorrow, but their deep faith sustained them during trying times.

My Mother was never too tired to answer a call to help the sick in the community, sometimes staying with them throughout the night. Politically, my Mother was a Republican and my Father a Democrat.

Papa was a farmer who, for many years, also served as a notary public. He had a grocery store and also peddled groceries throughout the community. Susie McClure wanted some vanilla extract, but Papa didn't have any. He knew it as vanilla flavoring and actually had several bottles with him.

It was mouth watering to see a whole barrel of apples and a showcase filled with candy and other goodies. One day Grady filled his cap with candy and when he put on his cap all of the candy fell to the floor. My Father didn't have the heart to spank him.

He was an expert at making sorghum for our consumption as well as for others. My Mother would pack a good lunch for him, but when the people invited him to have dinner, a big meal then, he would accept and eat his lunch later.

They raised sheep on the farm and, on many cold nights, bottle fed newly born lambs before the fireplace. Some became pets but later on, unfortunately butted people. When grown, the sheep were sheared, the wool washed and carded, and then Mother would spin the material into yarn on a spinning wheel.

My Mother had superior skills and created artistic designs. She designed and created a beautiful wool dress in the natural color. Later, she dyed it a beautiful shade of red. She made her own dyes. She also created a lovely Afghan using bright colors. She spent long evenings knitting gloves, mittens and sweaters, and sewing.

Planting a variety of vegetables, cultivating and later gathering her produce was a source of great satisfaction for her. She always wanted relatives and friends to see her garden. She canned and dried fruit and made hoop cheese.

She needed an abundance of food because my parents extended a warm welcome to all visitors; they were numerous. To this day her loved ones still remember her strawberry shortcake and fluffy homemade rolls. She was a marvelous cook. Grandfather McClure would stay at our home a month at a time after Grandmother died. He was highly respected.

When I was on a train to Nashville to attend George Peabody College, these words of wisdom from Mama echoed through my mind, "I have done everything within my power to instill character in you. You will be on your own now and I trust that you will never go astray."

My parents left us a great legacy. May we continue striving to uphold the principles and values they respected.

Julia Edna Graper Lancaster Stephens

John and Julia Stephens
This is your life

Once upon a time --- in Decatur County, TN, a little girl named Julia was born to very loving parents. This was a big event in the lives of Robert L. and Addie McClure Lancaster, as well as three brothers, Curry, Grady, and Ben, also three sisters, Euda, Beulah and Thelma.

This little girl had a great love for life and living every day to the fullest, as she proved time and again with her school friends as they played tricks on their teachers, such as eating home ec. cookies when they weren't supposed to, eating pickles from a barrel early in the morning, riding at breakneck speed on a horse through the city of Decaturville.

After attending schools in Decatur Co. it was time to spread her wings and fly. She could do this with the greatest of confidence after being taught by the best, her Mother, whose wise advise she carried with her and lived with and does until this day.

After attending Tolers Business College in Paris, TN it was on to George Peabody College in Nashville where she was greeted with open arms by fellow students, and more "fun things" that are such a part of school days, the things our fond memories are made of.

She was later employed by TN. Dept. of Ed. For two years in Nashville and late moved to Knoxville to work in State Dept. of Vocational Rehabilitation. The office was located on Univ. of TN campus. The rest-as the old saying goes-is history in the making. This is where her "Prince Charming" appeared on the scene.

John F. Stephens, whose parents were: Emma A. Laporte Firth and John Tupman Stephens. John and his sister Frances were born in Covington, KY. His Mother was a musician, his father worked with Nashville and Louisville R. R. Co.

They moved to Knoxville when John was ten years old. He attended grade schools in Covington, KY and Knoxville, TN followed by high school and Univ. of TN in Knoxville.

His university degree is Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering. He first worked as a salesman for Warren Candies in Knoxville. About a year after graduation from university, John met Julia on campus, where she was employed. The "never ending joy" began (John's own words). After a short exciting dating period she accepted his proposal, after three and one half years engagement they were married in Elizabethtown, TN where John was employed by American Bemberg Corp. Rev. Jesse Benton, Methodist Minister performed the ceremony on December 24, 1939. The bride was beautiful in a teal blue suit with matching accessories and corsage. Their honeymoon weekend was spent at the John Sevier Hotel in Johnson City, TN.

They were off on the first part of their fabulous journey through life together, where they have traveled to many places and have seen many extraordinary things.

In 1942 they moved to Cleveland, TN where John was employed in the first of two successive World War II jobs. In 1944 they moved to Oak Ridge where he received an Army-Navy award. He attained a civil service job and moved to Detroit, MI in 1949. His principal career role with the General Motors Corp. followed in 1951. This work involved much travel and Julia was included in many preferred trips, such as world fairs and expos, Chicago, New York, Montreal and Knoxville.

From the beginning of their life together they were both involved in civic activities as well as church related ones. They served as scout leaders, mission activities that they supported in their church, volunteer work at the children's hospital of Michigan, administrative board of the Metropolitan United Methodist Church in Detroit where they attended. Julia was awarded life membership in the Society of Christian Service in Oak Ridge in 1949, many other activities too numerous to mention. John retired from General Motors on December 31, 1975. They continued to live in Detroit for eight more years where they enjoyed their retirement by staying involved in their church, neighbors, friends, and hobbies, which include flower arranging, bridge, travel, reading, hiking and napping.

For all their blessings along the way, they give credit first of all to God and to their wonderful parents, teachers, relatives, friends, for their love, inspiration and encouragement along the way. They moved back to Nashville in 1983 where they have continued their activities to a great extent. They transferred their membership from Metropolitan United Methodist Church in Detroit to West End United Methodist Church in Nashville March 24, 1985.

It's impossible to put fifty years of love and marriage on a few pages of paper, for this has been and still is two very busy people. There are no "couch potatoes" at 4001 Anderson Road in Nashville, TN.

This was written in honor of their fiftieth wedding anniversary, which was celebrated December 1989 at the old home place of Uncle Ed and Aunt Flora Lancaster at Bath Springs, TN which was fitting for the occasion since so many of Julia's earlier memories were there. The dark wintry day was blessed with beautiful sunshine as if the whole world was smiling on this couple who have so much love in their heart for everyone and promised before God fifty years before to stay together and have kept their promise.

A tribute to my parents, sisters and brothers

Being the last living member of my family, it is an honor and privilege to pay tribute to my parents, brothers and sisters. I am the last of seven children.

My parents were strict disciplinarians, yet, kind, loving and always interested in our well being. In my estimation my Mother was saintly. My Father loved her dearly and after her death, nothing was ever the same without her. She wanted so much to live to take care of him.

Curry as a young child had to stand on a box to help Mama wash the dishes. Later in life he was fortunate to find Betty as his help mate. He stressed the importance of my getting a good education. I stayed with them when I was in the seventh and eighth grade at Freed Hardeman College in Henderson, Tennessee. His second wife, Ann, made a good wife and they had two sons, Bob and David. When he was suffering from a brain tumor unable to talk, he pointed toward Detroit and managed to call my name.

Beulah went to school in Sardis along with Aunt Kitty but got home sick and never returned. Everyone loved her. She was a Florence Night-in-gale, always giving a helping hand to others. Thelma and Ben could not have made it without her love and devotion. Neither could my parents. As I flew to Detroit, I prayed that God would be with us until I reached the hospital in Lexington. She died peacefully that night. I was on one side of her bed; Kathleen was on the other.

Ben, too, was outgoing, tender hearted and willing to assist others. At my early age the thrill of a life time was when I could ride in a buggy. On one of Ben's jaunts to Saltillo, he took me along to buy a puppy. En route, he asked which I would rather have - "candy or the puppy". I said "candy". Of course, I got both. He enjoyed sharing that story with others. After my serious illness, he remarked "Julia, I am glad that you never had to work hard..." His untimely death was shocking and a great loss to his good wife, Jessie, and his eight lovely children, also our family.

Grady was gentle and kind. He, along with others, would let me ride the horses to the watering hole. He was careful to see that I did not fall off over the horses' heads into the water. He took me with him in the buggy one time when he was courting Mayme. I went with them when they moved into their home where Mayme still resides. Mama said Grady would always stay with others (visitors) until they left. He, too, helped others - especially Mama and Papa. His death was a great loss to all of us.

Euda was sweet and had a smile for everyone. My style was a bit cramped when I was in her presence. We both attended school at Red Walnut. Classes were held in different areas of the building. Her husband, Oscar, provided well for the family. They visited my parents often. I recall staying over night with them. Some of the little children thought it had snowed after Euda had shaken the flour bag over the ground.

I was attending school in Paris, Tennessee when I received word of her untimely death. This experience was very unsettling. First time, I had experienced death in our family. Our circle was broken. It was such a sad funeral. She had to leave her husband and five wonderful children.

Thelma was closer to my age. We loved each other, as, of course, I loved all of my brothers and sisters. Our childhood was happy, filled with fun, and , yes some home responsibilities. Being the youngest, I got the hand-me-downs, but Beulah, bless her, bought me a beautiful brown straw hat in Clifton. Thelma, Ben, Creed, Nancy, and Frances visited my Mother and Father often. Her long illness grieved all of us and we wondered why she had to suffer. She loved her church and worked diligently to promote the work of Christ. Her untimely death left a great void in our lives. It was so difficult for her to leave Ben and their three precious children.

I gratefully appreciate the love, encouragement given me by my family.

Notes for MARTHA GENEVA LANCASTER:

The Lancaster Descendants, Patricia Ann Maners, July 4, 1991

Geneva remembers when she would go to her grandmother's to spend the night. She would usually get Kathleen to stay with her. After they would eat supper, they would play some games, then they would pop some corn over the fire. Sometimes they would watch Mama Lancaster use her spinning wheel to make thread to knit different things. When they went to bed, Mama Lancaster would tell them stories. She would tell one about the old red fox. He liked to get in the chicken house to catch a chicken to eat. Another one was little red riding hood and the big bad wolf. When she got tired and sleepy she would tell some scary ones and we would cover our head and ears up and would soon be asleep.

Mama Lancaster had several ducks and they would go down to the branch not too far from the house and lay eggs in the water. We would find them and bring them to the house for her. She would also take us fishing. We would go to the creek and walk a long way but we really did enjoy it.

In the fall when the persimmons got ripe, Mama Lancaster would carry J. L., Kenneth, Kathleen, Creed and me opossum hunting. She would always carry a cane with her and the dog "Shep". She knew where there were several persimmon trees in the pasture and woods not too far from the house. We would carry a toe-sack with us hunting. When old Shep would start to bark she would say "He has one up a tree." We all would go to the dog and sure enough he would have one treed. Sometimes one of the boys would climb the small tree and shake the opossum out and the dog was waiting for it on the ground. If the opossum was in a hole or hollow log she would twist it out with the cane she had. It would take a while sometimes but she would always get it out. The boys were always ready to put him in the sack. The next day she would have sweet potatoes and opossum.

Papa Lancaster was a peddler, groceries, chicken eggs, candy, tobacco, etc. Sometimes he would come by our house in the peddling wagon. I would listen for him coming, then I would run and meet him. He would stop the wagon then I would get in and ride the house with him. The song we would sing was "Sweet Ole Liza Jane". I really did enjoy sitting in the spring seat with him and riding in the wagon.

When it would come time to shear the sheep us kids that were big enough had to help shear and some help hold the sheep for the older ones to shear them. Mama Lancaster washed and dyed the wool mittens for us kids.

There is much more I could write about, of the things Mama Lancaster would do with us. I love the memories of visiting her and Papa Lancaster, and I thanked the Lord for Grandparents like them. The things they taught us would help us in our life today.

"Miss Mamie" Celebrates 100 Years

Family and friends of Mrs. Mamie Lancaster gathered at Decatur County Manor on June 21 for a monumental event. Mrs. Lancaster was honored with a 100th birthday celebration. Many memories were shared with everyone about a strong farm wife, caring mother, and true one hundred year Decatur County resident.

Mamie Julia Scott was born June 22, 1902 in the Liberty Community of Decatur County. The Scott family called a two room log structure with dirt floors home. One of seven children, she had two sisters and four brothers. She and her siblings attended school in the Liberty community as well.

In 1920, at the age of 18, Ms. Scott married Mr. Grady Lancaster. The Lancasters made their living farming and together they raised four children, Edith, Kenneth, Kathleen, and Gordon.

Mrs. Lancaster's life was spent in numerous farm chores: cooking, gardening, and sewing, just to name a few. Most of the young family's clothing was hand stitched by Mrs. Lancaster flour sacks. Her garden always supplied vegetables for daily meals and canning items for the winter months.

Family and friends remember the many wonderful dishes she cooked. Dorothy Reed remembers, "Mamie always made the best caramel pies." Julia Stephens agreed that the pies were delicious, but enjoyed the fresh and canned sausage she would prepare when she and John visited the Lancaster home. Debra McBride, Keith's wife, is still trying to "cook biscuits like Grandma's."

Geneva Montgomery lamented times when women would gather to can vegetables, quilt, or make lye soap. Many from the community remember her as being a good neighbor.

Mrs. Lancaster's daughter, Kathleen, shared a childhood memory: "One day I wanted to go home with Geneva to spend the night and finally Mama said yes! Geneva and I ran through a hog lot grown up with weeds. There was a hen with little chickens in the weeds. I stepped on one of the chickens and of course, I didn't get to go after all, because I had killed the chicken."

The Lancasters were married for 68 years before his death in 1988. Miss Mamie continued to live at home managing a garden and push mowing her yard well into her eighties. In 1994, she moved to Decatur County (Manor). The staff there continues to do a wonderful job of caring for her. The Manor arranged and catered the celebration for over forty family members and friends, as well as many friends at the manor.

Mrs. Lancaster was born, raised, married, and now has celebrated one hundred years in Decatur County.

Junior would follow us and get a stick and poke the old cow and the cow would kick the milk over and spill it. I would cry. Geneva would say "don't cry, I will get him one of these days." Mama Lancaster made biscuit dough and rolled it out real thin and made two false faces for her and me. We then took white sheets and pinned them around our heads. We went out on the porch and knocked on the door and Dewey Wallace came to the door. He fainted and everyone was screaming trying to get out the back door. Boy! was Mamma Lancaster tickled we had scared those folks to death.

As were coming home we were passing this small graveyard in the woods on the side of the road. I asked Papa, "Do you know what kind of people are buried there?" Pap said "No, what kind?." I said "Dead ones." Papa and Mama Lancaster laughed and laughed.

Mrs. Rosie Kelly was picking cotton in front of our house so Mama Lancaster asked her the way to Decaturville and she was telling Mama Lancaster how to go when Daddy came around the corner, he said "Mama, what are you doing?"
